CONDITIONS OF BOOKING

1. The owner will not be liable to any person for any personal injury, loss or damage to property however sustained or caused.
2. Cancellations. Deposits are only returnable under very exceptional circumstances. Furthermore should no subsequent re-booking be obtained the owner reserves the right to claim the balance of the total value of the booking in full. You are advised to take insurance cover to the total cost of your holiday accommodation.
3. The landlord may refuse the right of entry to a property should any clause in the contract or in the description be broken by the holiday maker and no money will be refunded. In particular the following points must be strictly adhered to: (a) The number in the party must not exceed the number stated on the booking form. (b) No pets of any kind are to be taken to property unless details are on the booking form, and agreed to prior to arrival. (c) All damage accidental or otherwise to be paid for in full. The returnable deposit of £20 to be held by the owner until inspection of flats on day of departure.
4. Any dispute between the parties involved in the contract shall be settled according to English Law.
